Participants' Commitment

- Preparation prior to the mediation
- Willing to commit the day
- Listen actively
- Use direct communication
- Think before reacting
- Separate the people from the problem
- Focus on the future
- Remain flexible…keep an open mind
- Work toward a joint solution
- Invent options for mutual gain

DON Mediator

- Facilitates communication so parties can discover their underlying interests as opposed to their legal position

- Does not label or place blame on the parties

- Conducts the mediation in an impartial and even-handed manner and supports the parties' right to decide when and under what conditions they will reach an agreement or terminate the process

- Does not provide advice or offer a solution for the conflict

- Discloses all actual and potential conflicts of interest reasonably known

DON Mediator

- Adheres to the rules of confidentiality Administrative Dispute Resolution Act of 1996
  - Exceptions to confidentiality are fraud, waste and abuse; criminal activity; or intent to do bodily harm

- Mediates only when the necessary level of competence is acquired that satisfies the reasonable expectations of the parties

- Asks who, what, when, where type questions of the parties when they're drafting their settlement agreement

- Completes DON's 4-level initial certification program and fulfills requirements for recertification by DON every 2 years

SECNAVINST 5800.13

- ADR techniques shall be used as an alternative to litigation or formal administrative procedures to the maximum extent practicable.
- The goal is to resolve disputes and conflicts at the earliest stage feasible, by the fastest method possible and at the lowest possible organization level.
- Every conflict and issue in controversy, regardless of the subject matter, is a potential candidate for ADR.
- All personnel shall consider and encourage the use of ADR to resolve conflicts and issues in controversy.
